

May 2005

Dear Community Member:

Do you know someone or an organization that deserves an award for service to the arts? The City of Santa Fe is accepting nominations for the 2005 Mayor's Recognition Awards for Excellence in the Arts. This award recognizes individuals and organizations that have contributed greatly to the success of the arts in Santa Fe.

We also consider nominations of youth artists and emerging artists for special recognition awards. We invite you to submit nominations of outstanding individuals who deserve special recognition even though they are not yet well established in their careers.

Nomination forms for both categories can be obtained through this website or by calling the Arts Commission office at 955-6707 - artscommission@santafenm.gov . The deadline for submitting nominations is Friday, July 8, 2005 at 5:00 p.m. Current Commission members and recipients of the Governor's Awards for Excellence in the Arts within the last five years are ineligible. Please note that there is no need to submit multiple nominations for one person or organization. One thorough nomination will ensure consideration by the selection committee.

The arts play a very important part in the cultural and fiscal health of Santa Fe and we hope you will join Mayor Larry A. Delgado in recognizing those individuals who have contributed to the success of Santa Fe's arts community. This year, as in the past, we are very happy to have the sponsorship of Century Bank for this event. A dinner will take place in November 2005 to honor the recipients. Dinner announcements will be made in mid-September.

Sincerely,

Sabrina V. Pratt, Director
Santa Fe Arts Commission
